Angels
we know

Part 3 of 3
Revelation 12:7-8
From the Pastor Dr. Greg McFadden

Welcome to our gathering this morning! Today we conclude our series on “Angels we meet in Scripture.” Michael is mentioned in Daniel, Jude, and Revelation. Each time he is associated with spiritual warfare and prayer. I have prayed that today we would all take away from our time together the fact that prayer is to be an active verb in our life and not merely a noun. Satan is not concerned with our study of prayer, our definition of prayer, or even our attending a prayer meeting. But when God’s people see prayer as being fully engaged in spiritual battle where the casualties are eternal, he trembles!

Easter is only two weeks away! There is no better time to invite your unchurched, de-churched, and disinterested family and friends to a special event on a special day. The gathering that day will look like this: Breakfast on the lawn from 9:00-9:50, Choir concert at 10:00 with a simple Gospel message to follow. We will conclude with corporate worship of the resurrected King! Praying now for souls to be saved on Easter!

Anniversary
Celebrating our pastor, Val Hartlin on her one year anniversary in the office.

Thank you
Our family would like to “thank you” so much for all you did during our grief of Gary. We appreciate your kind words, thoughtfulness, and many prayers lifted up for our family. They were appreciated beyond words. Thanks to one and all who had a part in it. Nell Greenup & family

How can I become a member of First Baptist Church?
We will joyfully celebrate your public surrender to Jesus Christ at the conclusion of our worship service and receive you into our family membership. There are four ways in which you may join:

1. Profession of faith and baptism. If you have received Christ privately, your coming forward this morning will be a public testimony of faith. If the Holy Spirit has convicted you in this service you may come to the front and a minister will help you know how to receive Christ and His free gift of salvation.

2. Transfer of letter. If you are already a member of a church family directly affiliated with our Southern Baptist Convention you may simply come forward to let one of our ministers know of your intent to join here.

3. Statement of Faith. If you know that you have prayed to receive Christ as your Savior and you have been immersed as an act of baptism in a Christian church other than Southern Baptist, you may come forward and join by simply sharing your story with one of our ministers.

4. By watchcare. If you are a Christian of like faith and a temporary resident in the area and you desire to affiliate with this Church without severing connections from your home church, we can accept you as a member in watchcare.
